HTH Worldwide Welcomes New Chief Financial Officer

September 24, 2008 (Radnor, PA) – HTH Worldwide, a global health and safety services company, today announced it has hired Donald D. Joseph to serve as Chief Financial Officer. Mr. Joseph joins HTH as its senior financial executive to help the company continue its history of strong and profitable growth. He most recently served as Vice President of Finance and Accounting at Neoware, Inc., King of Prussia, PA, which was acquired by Hewlett Packard.

“Don brings to HTH twenty years of hands-on experience building and leading both startup and publicly-traded companies,” said Angelo Masciantonio, HTH Worldwide’s Chief Executive Officer. “He has the breadth and depth of financial management experience to help HTH invest the resources to grow rapidly without sacrificing profits.”

Mr. Joseph has served as a senior financial manager at Philadelphia-area software, hardware and information technology consulting firms including Prescient Systems, PMG Systems and Integrated Systems Consulting Group. He has experience with initial public offerings, corporate finance, and SEC and Sarbanes-Oxley compliance. Mr. Joseph holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting and Finance from Drexel University and is a Certified Public Accountant. He currently resides with his family in Audubon, PA.
